DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on June 18, 2003 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 7 through 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Regarding these claims, the Board of Appeals has held, in the decision of June 15, 2000, that the specification does not teach how the metallic blank of the invention can be drawn, while at the same time producing a final rotary member which includes a boss and an annular flange of equal thickness.

The Shaffer Tool Works case cited in the remarks filed June 18, 2003 is noted. In that case it was held not to be new matter to amend the specification to include what was shown in the drawings since the added matter was inherent in the specification disclosure as filed. It is noted that in the June 15, 2000 decision the Board of Appeals expressly found that there is no inherent teaching in Applicant's original disclosure that the boss and annular flat portion of the rotary member formed in the invention have the same thickness, as required by Claims 7 and 8.

The samples filed with the submission received June 18, 2003 have been noted. In these samples it appears that the material thickness of the formed boss is significantly thinner than the thickness of the flange portion (by 1/3 according to the Examiner's informal measurements – i.e., 1/8 inch boss thickness vs. 3/16 inch flange thickness).

Conclusion

3. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
